Deadlock At Madison Does Not Appear To Be Anywhere Near Breaking As Yet.

DIFFERENT CAMPS ARE VIGILANT

Seeking New Recruits And Work With Idea Of Creating Band Wagon For Their Respective Candidates This Week.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., April 22.—The second week of the balloting for United States Senator opens with the public and members as much at sea as ever as to the probable outcome. Evidence that an internal struggle is going on among the candidates themselves that may engender a bitter feeling and spoil what has otherwise been a most pleasant recreation of the legislature is apparent on the surface. Wise politicians expect a break this week—think that the time is ripe for a new alignment of forces. It is believed that some of the candidates will drop out. Whether this will clear the situation or not is not known, as none of the men now in the race can deliver his entire constituency to any other candidate. There will be a caucus this evening which may decide something, but the feeling is that nothing will be doing. It takes fifty-two to nominate in a republican caucus and while no one candidate is as yet dangerous combinations it is possible to be made might give the plum to some one of the chosen.

Stephenson's Idea
It is the idea of the men handling the Stephenson campaign that he should remain in the fight with an idea of rallying the men who drop from one camp or another to his standard. Hatten is very busy and may not pull out as was talked of the last part of the week. He has a small following, but one which will stick with him and can not be delivered. The same is true of Cooper, only he does not know for certain just how many of his men will stick, but he does know he can deliver only one.

BENEDICT GIMBEL DIED AT HOSPITAL IN HOBOKEN TODAY

Wealthy Philadelphia Merchant and Former Milwaukeean Dies from Wounds Self-inflicted After Arrest on Disgraceful Charge.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, April 22.—Benedict Gimbel, the wealthy Philadelphia merchant who cut his throat and wrists with broken glass at the Palace Hotel, Hoboken, New Jersey, soon after his arrest Friday evening on the double charge of extorting improper influence over Ives Clark, a street-year-old boy and attempted bribery of the county detectives who made the arrest, died at an early hour this morning. He was the youngest of seven brothers and gave up his residence in Milwaukee ten years ago. Friends and relatives attribute his attempt to end his life and all that lay behind it to a mental collapse resulting from overwork.

SOCIALIST HANGED BY NATIONALISTS

Lynch Law Inaugurated at Lodz, Russia, to Avenge Murder of 15-Year-Old Girl.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Lodz, Russia, April 22.—The lynch law has been inaugurated by the nationalists to put an end to the socialist outrages here. Having captured one of three socialists who murdered a 15-year-old girl the nationalists took their prisoner to the outskirts of the city, tried, sentenced him to death by hanging, and carried out their sentence.

TRAINMEN OPPOSE ELECTION OF ESCH

His Weak Substitute for La Follette's Sixteen-Hour Law Cause of Unpopularity.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., April 22.—A resolution has been adopted by the railway trainmen in opposition to the election of Congressman Esch as a successor of Senator Spooner. The resolution says that Senator La Follette introduced a sixteen-hour labor bill for the regulating of the hours of work of railway employees. Then Congressman Esch introduced a weak substitute which was finally adopted.

Francis-Bartlett Wedding
Washington, D. C., April 22.—A society wedding of note in St. Mark's Episcopal church today was that of Miss Louise Frances Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bartlett of this city, and John Francis, Jr., son of two out of the nineteen he had last week.

Uncertain Quantity
The uncertain quantity on the whole fight are the conservatives. They have been casting their votes here and there. When one candidate seems to lose a tiff a few conservative votes are switched to him and up goes his stock. This element and the twenty-four democrats make a dangerous element for the ultra radicals. They fear unless a strong combination is made whereby Lenroot or some such man can control the fifty-two votes of the caucus their cause is a lost one.

Dark Horse
It is now suggested a dark horse will appear in the ultra radical camp. Some men in whom all the radicals can unite. Senator Sanborn is talked of as the man, or perhaps Hatten. If this comes to an issue the more conservative element might rally to Davidson and the fight become a harder one to solve than the present one, although with all the conservative and the semi-conservative element and the democratic aid they might be successful.

Merely Talk
However this is only in the wind. Nothing definite is known. The Stephenson men claim that if this semi-radical element come to Stephenson's aid he will be out of the way in two years and they can then have the field clear for the primary campaign. It sounds good to talk, but does not appear to impress the members greatly. It is safe to say that neither Stephenson or Lenroot will get the Davidson-Connor conservative vote.

1912-1918 SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS

Will Be Arranged by American and English Sections of International Association.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Boston, Mass., April 22.—Beginning tomorrow and continuing three days the American section of the lesson committee of the International Sunday School association will hold its annual meeting in this city. These sessions being coincident with the gathering here of five hundred delegates to the World's Fifth Sunday School convention to be held at Rome next month. A committee of fifteen was elected for six years at the international convention representing the countries of North America in Denver in 1902. It is the duty of these, in conjunction with the London section, to select the international lessons for the 22,000,000 in the Sunday schools of the international field. That work having been done for the years ending with 1911, work will be begun for the six years beginning with 1912. The reason for meeting in Boston is that all the members are to attend the world convention in Rome and will sail from this city with the official excursion next Saturday. More than 500 delegates and visitors are already booked to sail on that day—325 on the "official steamer" and Romanic, from Boston, and 175 from New York by the steamship Neckar. The voyage will be by way of the Azores and it is expected the two parties will reach Naples on the same day.

OBSERVED CENTENARY OF HENRY FIELDING

Earliest English Novelist Honored by Literary Societies Throughout United Kingdom.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, April 22.—The bicentenary of Henry Fielding, the earliest of England's great novelists, was observed today by literary societies throughout the United Kingdom. In London a notable dinner was held under the auspices of the Society of Somerset Men. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle occupied the chair and several scores of literary and dramatic celebrities were in attendance. It was just two hundred years ago today that Fielding first saw the light of day near the town of Glasbury. Born of a very ancient and noble family, he was one of the most thorough democrats. He was sent to Eton and studied for time in Leyden, but his life was careless and the remittances from his father, small and irregular. His subsequent career was as interesting as that of any of the subjects of his pen. By the time that he was 20 he was writing for the stage, and making some headway, but his income was uncertain and his habits reckless. In his 27th year he married a beautiful and amiable girl who brought to him a dowry of several thousand dollars. He determined to settle down, but his love of pleasure and display overcame him and he soon squandered all the money. He was over 40 years old when he produced his second and most famous novel, "Tom Jones." His third novel, "The History of Amelia," was published when he was 45. Two years later he died of dropsy, while on a visit to Lisbon.

State Commission And Promised To Answer Calls For Assistance.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

La Follette of Wisconsin addressed the citizens of Moscow, urging them to insist upon the creation of a state railroad commission.

In case the fight became too warm, Mr. La Follette stated that he would, without expectation of reward, or without any thought of remuneration, come to direct the fight in person. He further stated that the country was undergoing a change, due to the policies of the business interests, that boded no good to the people at large.

POWER OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

Will Be Determined By United States Supreme Court In Trial Of Lumber Rate Cases.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., April 22.—One of the most important cases with which the United States supreme court has had to deal in a long time came up for argument before that tribunal today. The case is one in which several of the prominent southern railroads are aligned against the Interstate Commerce commission. The direct question at issue is the right of the railroad companies to advance the freight rate on lumber.

But there is a far broader question involved than this direct issue of lumber rates. This is the scope and power of the Interstate Commerce commission. The case has been pending since April, 1903, when the Central Yellow Pine association, composed of manufacturers of that product in the territory east of the Mississippi river and west of Georgia, was formed for the purpose of fighting an advance in freight rates. They alleged that the advance was unreasonable in itself and the product of a conspiracy among all the carriers of yellow pine in the south. The matter was taken before the Interstate Commerce commission. About the same time a similar action was begun by the Georgia Sawmill association against the railroads in that country. In February, 1905, the commission decreed that the advance was unreasonable and the railroads were ordered to desist from further demanding of it.

But the railroads were not satisfied. They gave a supercedas bond of $500,000 to repay shippers for an excess of charges in the event the decree stood, and then appealed their case to the United States circuit court of appeals at New Orleans. This court upheld the decree of the commissioner. The railroads then took an appeal to the United States supreme court.

Should the decisions of the lower courts stand unshaken, the ruling of the Interstate Commerce commission will be justified, and the right and power of that body will claim another precedent. At the same time the lumber shippers of the south will have won a battle on shipments which in a year's aggregate business will mean a saving computed to be more than $1,000,000.

AN OFFER
 To the Weak and Weary Women of Janesville.
 "There are hundreds of women in this vicinity who are dragging themselves through life in pain and misery, without vitality, strength or health," said a member of the Smith Drug Co.
 "They get no happiness out of life and are just in a condition to be attacked by almost any disease. They need a vitality-making and strength-creating tonic."
 "Now, at our expense, we want to ask every such woman to try our cod liver preparation, Vinol, which contains, beside tonic iron, the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, but no oil or grease. It is delicious to take, creates a healthy appetite, makes pure, rich, red blood, and gives strength and vigor to every organ of the body better than any medicine we have ever sold in our store, and when a woman is in this condition it makes life worth living."
 "When we say 'at our expense' we mean that if the medicine you buy from us and pay for does not benefit you, we will refund every cent of it cheerfully, and thus you try it at our expense." Smith Drug Co.
 NOTE—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Janesville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country.

TOLD OF WORK IN FIELD OF REFORM

ANTI-SALOON MEN PREACHED IN FOUR PULPITS.

FOUR ABLE SPEAKERS TALK

Union Meeting at Cargill Church in the Evening Was Largely Attended by Interested Audience.

In four of Janesville's churches Sunday members of the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon League told the congregations assembled what was being done for the cause of temperance by the League. Not only what was being done but what could be done to further the work. They were interesting talkers. They did not rant and tear, but stated plain facts in a convincing manner that left no doubts in the minds of their hearers that the true way to reform the existing conditions was not by party politics but by law enforcement, legislation, and agitation.

The Speakers.
 Rev. P. C. Weed was at the Congregational church in the morning and spoke at the Union meeting at the Cargill Memorial church in the evening.
 F. C. Zechel was at the Cargill Memorial church in the morning.
 Dr. T. M. Hare of Milwaukee at the Baptist, and R. P. Hutton at the Presbyterian church at the same time. The four men are forceful talkers, full of the subject they advocate and they leave a good impression upon their hearers that the radical reform movements fail to awaken. Law enforcement was what was advocated for Janesville; enforcement of the existing ordinances as regards the saloon.
 As Mr. Weed said in his evening address: "The saloon is the only legal institution that has not one single redeeming feature."

It was pointed out that there are laws relative to the saloons and their trade that if enforced would gradually compel them to observe the law and go out of business. The recent decision of the supreme court relative to the revoking of licenses of saloon proprietors who violate the laws and are brought into court was explained carefully. In the opinion of Mr. Weed the saloon has no reason for its existence and consequently should go and will go when the people realize that it is in their hands to make it go.
 The high license question is no hinderance to the saloons. It crowds out a few smaller and cheaper places but as Mr. Weed said a man can get just as drunk in a saloon paying a thousand dollars license as he can in one paying two hundred dollars. The moto of the Anti-Saloon League is "The Saloons Must Go."

The Political Party.
 The speakers were careful to explain that the Anti-Saloon League was not a political party. In fact the trend of their arguments all showed that they did not believe the reforms desired could be brought about by any one political party but by a general concerted action of the people themselves. The League is a federation of all parties, all sects. The object is to hit the saloons today, to vote them out of existence. The saloons can not be abolished in a day. The local option law now pending in the legislature will do much to help the cause along if passed.

Three Branches.
 The League has three branches of work outlined. Law Enforcement, Legislation and Agitation. The case of Superior's closing its saloons Sunday in answer to public demand was an example of what can be done by law enforcement. The law which gives the power of the council to revoke the license of a saloon man found guilty of violating an ordinance is the work of the legislative end of the work. It was the result of the agitation two years ago in the legislature and this year the measure is the residence district law. Two years ago the schools were protected, now the home; possibly in two years more it will be the individual.

Agitation.
 The third division of the work is agitation. By this is meant the work done in any community. The seeking of no license at spring elections in the defeat of men who advocate the liquor traffic at the fall elections.
The League is ready to help any community desiring assistance. It will send organizers and campaign managers into the field to fight the liquor people any time. An illustration of this, not called to the attention of the congregations, was the appearance of the four earnest men yesterday in four pulpits in Janesville. At the Y.
M. C. A. rooms in the afternoon, when Mr. Hare spoke, a temporary organization was perfected, three members appointed from the Y. M. C.
A. audience, four by the ministers of the four churches, and the four pastors themselves. This is an example of the same work, organization of forces by public agitation.

Gave Figures.
 Mr. Wood last evening gave figures relative to the work done by the League since its inception. It is but ten years old, was organized in Ohio and today has a permanent foothold in forty-five states. "Five hundred lawyers and preachers are tonight preaching this doctrine in five hundred churches," said the speaker. "Today three-fourths of Texas is for temperance, the same is true of Ohio, practically all of Tennessee, except a half dozen of the larger cities. Kentucky is almost a menace to the liquor trade so universal has become the anti-saloon league. Nine hundred counties out of one hundred and nineteen being without saloons. There are today nearly thirty-five million residence districts of the United States without saloons where eight years ago there were but ten million."
 "In twenty years the saloons will be out of existence" is the statement Mr.
Weed lays great stress upon.

Were Interested.
 One had but to glance about the vast audience last evening to see that the idea of law enforcement in Janesville had interested men. The idea that the saloons exist and will exist as long as the people demand them was dwell upon by the speaker, but the idea that if they do exist they can be made to abide by the laws made for their government or go out of business struck a popular chord. If the committee formed yesterday at the Y.
M. C. A. goes about its work properly it can compel the city officials of Janesville to see that the saloon laws are obeyed, that the saloons are closed Sundays, that minors are not sold liquor, that they close promptly at eleven each night. They can not drive them out of business but they can compel them to obey the laws or have their licenses revoked.

TESTING WALSHAERT GEARED LOCOMOTIVE

New Engine from C. M. & St. P.
Shops at Milwaukee Being Used on Janesville Passenger.

Considerable attention has been attracted during the past few days to a new engine built at the West Milwaukee shops of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway company, that is being used on the Milwaukee-Janesville passenger runs 7 and 20. The locomotive, number 221, is different than others in that Walshaert's gear is used. The greater part of the mechanism, usually placed under the boiler, is on the sides in direct connection with the pistons. Thus no motion is transferred angularly and the only loss is by friction. The radical transmission of motion being obviated, speed is gained. The engine starts with the first movement of the piston and stops with the stop of the piston. Various English and European companies use the Walshaert gear extensively, while the New York Central and Pennsylvania lines use it on all high-speed locomotives. Test St. Paul company is the only western company using this gear and if their experience result in adoption of the gear many other western companies will try Walshaert geared locomotives for passenger service.

JANESVILLE BOY IS ARRESTED FOR GAME

Chicago Papers Credit Janesville With Having Sent Ticket Speculator to Chicago.

In this morning's Tribune the following item relative to a man claiming Janesville as his home appears.
 A search in the city directory fails to discover he is a resident here. The item is as follows:
 "George Osterman, 39 years old,
came to Chicago from Janesville, Wis., on Friday. He bought two tickets for the Majestic theatre for the performance last night. Then he discovered he could not use them. He George quite naturally went to the theatre lobby and tried to sell them to patrons.
 "Two detectives saw Osterman approach several persons. They arrested him on a charge of attempting to sell tickets at advanced prices. He was searched and only two tickets were found. He will be tried this morning.
 "In the meantime ticket speculators were doing a rushing business in hotel lobbies. New signs showed their prosperity and evident determination to force matters to an issue.
 "At the Palmer house two new signs have appeared on pillars at the entrance to the hotel. They announce that tickets for all theatres can be obtained within. Over the stall in the lobby an even larger sign is displayed. For half an hour before theatre opening hours last night a constant crowd gathered, sufficient evidence to the value of the advertising.
 "The stall in the lobby of the Wellington hotel also was decorated with a bright new sign. There also a brisk trade was on. At the Auditorium hotel and the Sherman house no signs were displayed beyond the usual theatre advertisements, but business was carried on as usual. Apparently the theatre managers still are turning over the best seats in their houses to the men whose occupation is unlawful under the city ordinances."

LAUNCH CREW'S GHASTLY FIND

FLOATER DISCOVERED IN THE ROCK SIX MILES SOUTH OF HERE YESTERDAY.

BODY OF GEORGE LEIPOLO

Former Boarder at J. H. Watson's Place Who Disappeared Six Weeks Ago—Believed to Have Been Struck by Train and Hurled from High Railroad

While hunting muskrats with a pistol on the west bank of the Rock river at a point almost directly opposite the Powers station just south of the subway on the Rockford & Interurban line but over a quarter of a mile below the St. Paul railroad bridge by way of the winding stream, A. E. Van Namee and other members of a Beloit launch party came upon the body of a dead man entangled in a mass of partially submerged brushwood a few feet from the shore line.
Their attention was first attracted by what appeared to be a portion of a coat and trousers projecting above the surface of the water, and when they procured a pole, and disturbed the strange object they were enabled to catch a glimpse of a human being seemingly dead. The body was in some violent and horrible form. This was about two o'clock in the afternoon and there were in the party, besides Mr. Van Namee, who lives at 119 Hackett street, John R. West, 112 Fifth street, the owner and captain of the launch, "Elona"; James Wise, who resides at No. 5 Barrett avenue; F. G. Jerome of No. 1 Barrett avenue, and Hugh Boyle, a bartender employed at an establishment on West Grand avenue.

Word Sent to Janesville Speeding across the river in the boat and hastening to the homestead near the station, they quickly sought out A. C. Powers and acquainted him with their discovery. Mr. Powers at once telephoned to the authorities in Janesville and a party consisting of Sheriff U. F. Fisher, City Marshal W.
J. Appleby, District Attorney John L.
Fisher, Officer William Mason, William Joyce, E. C. Scheller, and others departed for the scene on the 3:15 car. Arriving there they were met by Messrs. Powers and West and the latter conveyed a portion of the party across the river in his boat.
 The corpse was in a bad state of decomposition and had evidently been in the water for many weeks. It was with considerable difficulty that it was dislodged from its anchorage and after an examination of the clothes, towed to the east bank.

Effects Gave No Clue
 The body was that of a man about fifty years of age, thick-set and 5 feet, 4 inches tall. The features were bloated and decomposed almost beyond recognition, but there were traces of a mustache above the wide open mouth. A deep rent in the back part of the scalp and abrasion on the back of the right hand caused the members of the investigating party to glance involuntarily toward the railroad bridge as the possible and indeed probable solution of the mystery.
 A search of the pockets had brought to light a large metal snuff-box, a small purse containing a few buttons, and a silver case open-face Elgin watch, with safety pin and movement No. 562781. The watch had stopped at 12 minutes to eleven, but whether this registers a catastrophe in daylight or in darkness will probably never be known.

Body Identified.
 The remains were brought to Janesville and taken to Kimball's morgue.
It was the snuff-box which led to their identification by J. H. Watson this morning. When shown this property by Sheriff Fisher, Mr. Watson at once said: "That belonged to George Leipolo, who boarded with me until about six weeks ago and whose trunk is still over at the place." A visit to the morgue confirmed this conviction.
 Afterwards the contents of the trunk were examined and among them were found several letters from sons and daughters in Bradford, Pennsylvania, written in February and May, 1905, and addressed to Janesville, care of Watson's Restaurant. From the contents of these letters it appears that there had been some unpleasantness in Leipolo's family life; that he had left home suddenly without apprising relatives or friends of his intentions or destination; that he had drifted to Baltimore, New York, and thence westward; and that after a long period had elapsed, during which time he was mourned as dead by his family, he had suddenly written from Janesville for his clothes and his tools and money.

The daughter, Elizabeth Humphres, 9 Washington street, Bradford, reproaches him in a letter written May 28, 1906, for never having acknowledged the receipt of the wearing apparel and implements which she sent him and explains that it has been impossible for his son George, who resides at Warren, Pa., to send him money. "If you don't care to have us hear from you, you might at least drop a line to tell that you got the box alright," she says at the beginning but the epistle closes with endeared terms and a pitiful plea to the father to write and tell how he is faring among strangers in the (to her) far-off country.

Possibly Suicide
 These letters and the fact that Leipolo drank much and was often out of employment, lend some color to a theory of suicide. His character was such that when he wandered away a month or so ago his disappearance from favorite haunts occasioned no comment, it being taken for granted that having exhausted his resources and no ready work being available, he had drifted away somewhere in search of employment.

Notice to Plutocrats.
 If those aspiring souls who give much lucra to pay architects to perpetuate their infamy would give the corporation cold-cash to make needed improvements they would have special hymns sung in their honor on class day.—Harvard Lampoon.

CLASS CONFIRMED AT TRINITY CHURCH

Bishop Webb Also Preached at the Morning Services—Banqueted
This Evening.

Bishop Webb, bishop of the Milwaukee Diocese of the Episcopal church, confirmed a class of four at Trinity church yesterday morning and preached a sermon, taking as his text, "He that endureth unto the end the same shall be saved." Perseverance was the lesson taught by the sermon and given by the Bishop proved to be a very telling address. He speaks without notes or manuscript, but his sermons have a finished polish to them that is delightful to the listener. This evening he will be the guest of the men of Trinity parish at a banquet at the East Side Odd Fellows hall.
 Covers for sixty have been laid and the supper will be prepared by the ladies of St. Agnes guild of the church. Mrs. Edwin Smith, has charge of the service and the Misses Mary Stevens, Nellie Dudley, and Maud Knippenberg are among those who will act as waitresses. The class confirmed Sunday was composed of Mrs. Poppicough, Miss Charlotte Mount, Price James, and Fred Cummings.
Two weeks from last Sunday the Bishop will be at Christ church.

THE ROUNDUP.

West Talks a Few More on Timely Sport Topics.

An English sporting authority points with pride to the great advance in skill shown by Britain's jockeys during the last decade, but he fails to observe that it was the American boys that taught the Britishers how to get the maximum of speed out of a race horse.

The old English style of riding, that of sitting almost upright and on the middle of the horse's back, was speedily discarded when Tod Sloanie, the Reiff brothers and Danny Maher began to corral all the big prizes on English tracks. Now all the English riders crouched upon the horse's neck and shoulders, as do the Americans, thus putting the weight where the horse feels it the least and cutting seconds from every mile.

Speaking of Garry Hermann of Cincinnati, it is only fair to say that he has been a man of greater force in baseball than one can imagine. He has not been destructive, but constructive, and he has shown admirable keenness in solving vexatious snags of long standing.

"It's better to have golfed and lost than never to have drunk at all. That is, in other words, marriage covers a multitude of sins.
 Anyway, it wasn't Lord Byron who said, 'Tell the truth and shame the family.'"

Secretary Farrell of the National association says there will be fifty minor leagues in operation in 1908. We believe it.

low he has either become very rich or gone broke.

Chaply Hastings has been ruled off the turf for peddling speed giving or speed delaying dope, as the demand happened to run. The fact that there was enough demand to warrant a peddling business ought to interest the turf judiciary some also.

Something like $5,000,000 worth of race tracks have been or will be put out of business, one instance where the track owners played their own game and lost.

vorce because her husband is a basetles at home for practice.

Ex-Champion Jim Jams Corbett is fond of a joke yet and likewise already. His best joke is not in his vaudeville talks. It is Mike Shreck, who is hailed by Corbett as the coming heavyweight champion. Jim says

"Shreck has the punch." That's true, but it's usually a milk punch loaded to the muzzle.
 Jim will, he says, give the 200 pound baby lessons in boxing. That statement is somewhat ambiguous. Does Jim mean boxing gloves or boxing sardines? Anyway as long as Shreck is kept away from the prize ring he may be able to win some kind of a boxing title.

Complimented.
 A few weeks ago a Philadelphia man was in a North Carolina town of very few inhabitants. One day when he was on the point of making a purchase he discovered that he had exhausted his small change. The shopkeeper could not "break" the $10 bill offered him, and the northern man went out in the "main street" to see how he might solve the difficulty. He asked several persons, but still on one had the requisite amount for the bill.
 At last an old, white-haired seedy negro came along. "In sheer desperation the Philadelphia man said:
 "Uncle, can you change a $10 bill for me?"
 "Uncle" looked dazed for the moment. Then, his shuffling figure straightened. With a jolting of the hat and a bow worthy of Chesterfield, he replied with dignity:
 "No, marse, I can't change no $10 bill; but I done 'precises the compliment 'jes' the same, sah."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Monday, April 22, 1867.—In Session Again.—After their week's vacation the public schools commenced their session again this morning.

Christ Church.—At the annual meeting of the congregation of Christ Church, held this (Easter Monday) morning, the following persons were elected wardens and vestrymen for the ensuing year:

J. J. R. Pease, Esq., senior warden; Dr. Jos. B. Whiting, junior warden; Vestrymen:

Dr. C. Lotius Martin, D. Wheeler, M. C. Smith, Hamilton Richardson, L. F. Patten, William Rager, Hiram Jackman and Gilbert Hogan.

Trinity Church.—At the annual parish election for this church, held in the church this morning, the following persons were elected:

J. B. Doe, senior warden, St. A. Hudson, junior warden.

Vestrymen:
J. A. Wood, H. Bump, J. H. Johnston, Charles Norton, S. Peck, Jr., W. H. Ebbetts, C. J. McCall, A. Palmer.

New Law Firm.—Our two ex-Congressmen, Hon. I. C. Sloan and Hon. H. S. Conger, have entered into a co-partnership for the practice of law. It gives us pleasure to say that many people in Southern Wisconsin know already, that the ability, professional experience and high personal character of these gentlemen make the new firm one of the strongest and most respectable in the state; with whom the weightier matters of the law can safely be trusted.

The Weather.—When a fellow gets bile on his stomach the only way to cure him is to get it off as soon as possible, and what is true of humans, seems to be equally true of the weather. If it has a snowstorm in its constitution the quickest way to summer it out, is for it to "get shut" of the troublesome element without delay. Feeling sure that the temperature prevailing that there was something that ought to come out of the weather, we were not at all surprised at the first class snow storm last night. We expect now to see the spring settle down to her regular work, and not let winter linger on her lap any longer.

LEADER OF CAMORRA LIKELY TO GO FREE

ROMANTIC STORY OF ITALIAN BANDIT CAUGHT IN NEW YORK.

IS ACCUSED OF MURDERS

Rival and Wife Brutally Slain—How "Erricone" Escaped from Italy and Came to America.

New York, April 22.—A police raid on an obscure resort in the underground world of the East side has brought to light the romantic story of an Italian bandit, a fantastic Neapolitan Rob Roy, of great secret power, who, fleeing from his native country to escape arrest for assassination, came to America to wield the same power which was his abroad.

The man is Enrico Alfano, called "Erricone," head of the mysterious "Camorristi di Napoli," or Camorra, an Italian organization of terrorists. When the police raided an East side den one night last week, Alfano was discovered crouching in a corner seeking to escape the glare of the policeman's lantern. He has been held without bail until Monday on the charge of murder, but unless the necessary requisition papers have arrived from Italy, or some strong representations are made from Rome to the government at Washington, it seems likely he will be given his freedom.

Rival and His Wife Murdered.
Death was the punishment inflicted on one Cuocolo, a pretender to the position of ruler of the Camorristi, and Alfano is declared to be the slayer of his rival. The pretender was lured to a forest where he was stabbed to death, it is claimed; by Alfano and his friends. Then the wife of Cuocolo was condemned. Alfano and his men called at Cuocolo's home, and when his wife opened the door she was stabbed, her body pierced by a dozen slender shafts of steel.

The assassinations spurred the gendarmes of Naples to extraordinary activity. Alfano and the conspirators, always protected by the far-reaching Camorra, seemed immune from prosecution. Indeed, he was held by the populace as a demi-god, possessed of mystic powers, free to roam at will unharmed because enveloped with some Divine authority, invulnerable as to bullets and impossible of capture.

Was Honored in New York.
The scene changes quickly to America and to the Italian settlement of New York. The Camorra, like the Mafia, thrived and was feared here, too, with all its sinister machinations which baffled the police. By the New York Camorra the chief was greeted with many honors. A feast was prepared in recognition of the coming of the leader and Alfano was banqueting at the Pastrochi. But this feast was his undoing. He was spied upon by a follower of the murdered pretender, and the word was passed to Petrosini and Archipolli, New York's Italian detectives. Their subsequent descent upon the East side underground resort ended the bandit's liberty.

Alfano is not much over 35 and of lithe and graceful build. As he stood up before Magistrate House in the police court Saturday he had all the appearance of an Italian of high rank. He admitted through an interpreter that he was Alfano, but denied that he had committed any crime. He was, he declared, visiting the United States because of the frequency of political arrests in Italy.

S.S.S. PURIFIES THE BLOOD

There is no other part of our physical system upon which so much depends as upon the blood. The muscles, nerves, bones, sinews, skin, and other portions of the body are sustained, developed and enabled to perform their different duties, because they are supplied with nourishment and healthful properties through the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A sluggish, inactive condition of the system, and torpid state of the avenues of bodily waste, will leave the refuse and waste matter of the body to sour and form uric and other acids, which are absorbed into the blood and Rheumatism, or some itching, disfiguring skin disease is the result. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, spots, pimples, etc., all show that some humor has taken root in the circulation and rendered it sour and unfit for nourishing the body. There is scarcely any disease which cannot be traced to the blood. Often the disease-tainted blood of parents is handed down to children and their lives are a continual battle against disease in some form, usually of a scrofulous nature. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood troubles, and until this vital fluid is purified they cannot be cured. For all blood diseases S. S. S. is the best remedy ever put upon the market. This great medicine is made of roots, herbs and barks of recognized blood-purifying and building-up properties. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities and humors, supplies the blood with the healthful properties it needs and completely cures blood diseases of every kind. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., because it purifies the blood. Book on the blood and medical advice free.

A FEE OF $1500.

Some seven or eight years ago Dr. Richards was considering the matter of going to India with a dentist friend of his to practice dentistry in the city of Calcutta.

It was reported that an American dentist could make a big go of it over there.

Dr. Richards hesitated because of the fearful heat and finally located in Janesville.

The other man talked his brother into it and they actually went.

The other day Dr. Richards received a newspaper clipping describing in detail.

An officially engineered visit of the dentist to the Royal American.

The dentist was gone two months from his office, traveling over 1000 miles with a royal mounted escort of forty horsemen and was treated like a prince.

He placed six gold fillings in the American's mouth and brought home a fee of $1500 in gold.

It looks like he was doing fairly well over there.

That's probably the world's record as to dental fees.

Dr. Richards here in Janesville does not cater for big fees.

Reasonable prices and careful work have built up for him the largest dental practice in the city.

Try him for your next dental work.

MRS. ANNA M'KENNEY
DIED LAST EVENING

Was Badly Burned Four Weeks Ago but Complete Recovery Had Been Anticipated.

Mrs. Anna Randall McKenney, whose clothing was set ablaze by a bonfire in the yard of her home, 50 Ruger avenue, four weeks ago last Wednesday and who sustained severe injuries from which she was believed to be slowly recovering, suddenly breathed her last shortly before eight o'clock last evening. Her death was directly caused by ulceration of the bowels induced by the burns inflicted on over half of the body. To the entire community the tidings of her demise was a terrible shock and the sympathy of a host of loving friends will go out to those who were nearest and dearest to her.

The deceased was born in Norristown, Pennsylvania, December 4, 1855, and moved to Janesville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Randall, when but five years of age. In this city she continued to reside until the year 1888 when she removed to Chicago. After the death of her brother, Charles Randall, in 1903, she once more returned to the old homestead in Janesville and here she had since resided, a devout and active worker in the Christ Episcopal church of which she was a member, one of the kindest and best of mothers, a true and noble woman. Her daughter, Miss Harriet McKenney, and her brother, Brigadier General George M. Randall of Cheyenne, Wyoming, are the nearest of kin surviving. A cousin, Mrs. Behn, has arrived from Chicago and will remain here for some time.

The funeral services will be held at the home on Ruger avenue at half past two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The interment will be at the Oak Hill cemetery.

James Burke.

James Burke, a resident of Janesville for the past two decades, died Sunday night at his home, 117 Pearl street. He was a native of Middle-town, county of Cork, Ireland, and for many years made his home at Watertown, Wis. Three children are left to mourn his loss: Mrs. W. F. Malone of Janesville, Miss Jennie L. Burke of Janesville, and Mrs. H. S. Easton of Indianapolis. Funeral will be Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's church and burial will be made at Watertown.

WOMAN REFUSED
GUNNING SUPPLIES

At Sheldon's Hardware Store Saturday Evening—Schumacher Tragedy Was Too Fresh in Mind.

Brutal about on the streets, the fact that an unknown woman, a stranger in the city, had tried to purchase a revolver at Sheldon's hardware store Saturday evening, occasioned considerable conjecture, not to mention consternation, in some quarters. She wore a black hat with floral decorations, and a black jacket was light complexioned, and good looking. Roy McDonald who waited upon her was not anxious to be even indirectly connected with a possible tragedy and so he dissuaded her from buying by pretending that there were no 32 calibre cartridges in stock. The supposed conversation with a friend waiting outside: "I'll get that fellow yet," is pure myth. She had no companion. The woman was seen on the streets yesterday morning and if she had any fell errand to accomplish, has probably abandoned the enterprise. She probably only wanted to indulge in a little harmless target practice, anyway.

SENTENCES SUSPENDED FOR CHARLES LOCKE

Landlord Albert Teubert Was Not Anxious to Press the Charge of Larceny from the Person.

In municipal court this morning Charles Locke pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny of the person preferred by Albert Teubert, proprietor of Smith's hotel. In a little altercation last week, Locke, while intoxicated, helped himself to Teubert's watch and chain. The latter did not care to press the charge and Judge Fifield suspended sentence during good behavior. Locke has an aged father and mother in Edgerton who are dependent on him for support and it was for this reason, largely, that the court decided to be lenient.

SWITCHMEN TRIMMED
HILLER'S BALL NINE

Ten-Inning Game in Dunn's Pasture Yesterday Afternoon—Other Amateur Contests.

North-Western switchmen and their allies turned the tables on George Hiller's baseball nine, composed mostly of firemen, in a game on Dunn's pasture, Washington street, yesterday afternoon. The switchmen, who were defeated a week ago, redeemed themselves by winning in a ten-inning contest. Under the able captaincy of James Mulligan the team held their opponents down to three runs and the runners being brilliant, they were coaxed by Manager D. J. Barry to reach the home plate for four scores. The line-up follows:

Switchmen. Firemen.
Barry, c. Hiller, p.
Tom Dee, ss. P. Foley
Mulligan, ss. Lichtfus
D. Murphy, 1b. Mulquin
W. Sage, 2b. R. Howland
F. Bait, 3b. J. Coen
J. J. McCarthy, 4b. J. Marshall
G. Alloway, cf. Marvin
J. Bowler, rf.
Next Sunday the two teams will play at the same field.

Whirlwinds 5, 3d Ward 4.
The third ward baseball team lost to the Spring Brook Whirlwinds yesterday by a score of 5 and 4. Both sides scored three times in the first inning; the Whirlwinds once in the second and the third warders once in the third; then no run was made until the eighth when the tie was broken by the Spring Brook side, Cronin driving a long fly over centerfield. Butters and Graves formed the battery for the third ward nine and Howard and Brummond for the Whirlwinds and both pairs were given excellent support.

Game Next Sunday
Next Sunday the third warders will meet a combination of former Eagles and Red Sox players, playing at the fair grounds. The third ward nine will be: Graves, c; Butters, 1b; Higgins, ss; DeMeres, 1b; Porter, 2b; Hough, 3b; Biers, 1b; Flemming, cf; Boylan, rf.

Two picked teams of Y. M. C. A. members played at Athletic park Saturday afternoon, the side captained by Will Langdon winning from Stewart Richard's nine by a score of 10 and 14.

GEO. SCHUMAKER IS MUCH BETTER TODAY

Feeling Is Returning to His Lower Limbs, Believed to Have Been Permanently Paralyzed.

George Schumacher is better today. His temperature this morning was 100 and his pulse was 98. "I am unable to see any possible chances for his recovery and yet the fact remains that his condition is improving. He can move his left leg some and the toes of his right one, and feeling over certain areas is returning. Internally he is also better. For the first time since the shooting he was given a little liquid food this noon. The bullet, which penetrated his lungs is not causing him any perceptible trouble, and that is another surprise. This was the statement made by Dr. G. C. Wauffe this afternoon.

THE WEATHER
The weather for the last 24 hours registered thermometer is as follows: 7 a. m., 42; 3 p. m., 64; highest, 64; lowest, 30; wind, west; pleasant.

SPRINKLED STREETS
WITH OIL REFUSE

Janesville Machine Company Cleaned Tanks Saturday and Made Novel Use of Residue.

The huge underground oil tanks of the Janesville Machine company were cleaned Saturday and several hundred pailsful of thickened oil removed. This refuse, which collects in all oil tanks, is practically worthless and the Machine company put it to a use that is novel in this part of the country. It was sprinkled over two blocks of South River street and one of Center street and most effectively settled the dust. In California and other states where crude oil is very cheap it is used for sprinkling highways and railroad rights-of-way.

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES

This evening the attraction at the Myers Theatre will be Lincoln J. Carter's latest production, "The Eye Witness."

As is customary with Mr. Carter's productions, each new play outclasses all previous efforts. "The Eye Witness" starts the bridge, but just a moment too late and before the huge bridge has time to fully open, the big red automobile rushes up the incline and with a great leap into space, reaches the other side and rushes on to its destination.

But the last and greatest effect in the play deals with certain citizens of the above town. During the action of the comedy these characters show what a difference the "small town" idea of life is to that of the blase Broadway men and women. Corinne appears in the role of "Mary Jenkins," the most popular servant girl chelle society. The character of "Kid" Burns, a retired prize fighter (played by Scott Welsh) whom Mr. Thomas Bennett brings to New Rochelle as his secretary, figures strongly in the comedy. He gains the enmity of Cronin, falls in love with Mary, finds the Castleton will, which is sup-ness" is no exception to the rule, for in this piece Mr. Carter has certainly outdone himself in the most sumptuous scenic effect ever produced.

One of the cleverest pieces of stage craft is seen in the third act, when the villain attempts to drown the heroine, weighting her body with stones, he has her thrown into the river and in full view of the audience, she is seen to sink to the bottom; the hero, who happens on the spot at that moment dives after her, he is seen to descend to the bottom, cut the weights from the girl and bring her to the surface and safety. Another exciting situation is the hair-raising automobile effect in the fourth act. The hero in a great red automobile is trying to reach the Union Depot in time to catch a train for his home, the villain realizing that should he do so, it would spoil all his plans, attempts to stop him by having the jack knife bridge over the Chicago river opened, failing to bribe the bridge tender, he overpowers him, grabbing the throttle and this most exciting play is the stupendous cyclone scene in the last act, showing the action of the wind in all its fury. The air seems literally alive with debris, making the most marvelous effect of the kind ever attempted. This is by far the most realistic stage effect of the kind ever produced and it in itself assures the success of the play.

Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger announce the early engagement in this city of last season's greatest success, "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," a musical play from the busy pen of young George M. Cohan. It will be presented here under the direction of Klaw & Erlanger, which means that the cast will be excellent, and the production all that could be desired. The play derives its odd title from the fact that Mr. Cohan has laid its scenes in the town of New Rochelle, a suburb of New York, and just three-quarters of an hour from Broadway.

New Rochelle, N. Y. The story of posed never to have been left, and upon discovering the fact that his employer is disinherited, goes to him and implores him not to marry the actress, whom he knows to be one of the mercenary maidens who manage to mingle in musical comedy. "Erry-Merry." Through methods which he employs, he accidentally discovers that Mrs. Dean, the mother of Bennett's fiancée, is an old friend of Cronin's, who has fleeced half the population of the little town. Finally he drives the woman and her daughter back to Broadway. He proves himself a diplomat, shoulders everybody's blame, saves Bennett his fortune, asks Mary to marry him, and having spent twenty-four hours in New Rochelle, starts back to New York, declaring that the little town 45 minutes from Broadway is a more civilized town than Providence, R. I.

"Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway" will be presented at the Myers Theatre Friday, April 26.

MRS. E. HALL,

15 W. Milwaukee Street

Derived from the French

Persia's ruler is the "shah," which word entered the English language long ago by way of the Arabic and old French, arriving in the form of "check." "Chess" is really "checks," kings; and the cry of "Check!" means one's king is in danger. Hence the verb and substantive "check" in all their English meanings: "check" or "cheque," which was originally the counterfoil of a bill that served to "check" fraud, "checked" from the aspect of the chessboard, and "exchange" from the checked pattern of the tablecloth on which the king's accounts were kept with counters.

Mrs. James Bryce

The Hon. Mrs. James Bryce, wife of the new British ambassador to the United States, has already earned a hearty welcome in official Washington, where she will, of course, occupy an important place in the round of hospitality for which the city is noted. Mrs. Bryce was Miss Elizabeth Marlow Ashton, daughter of Thomas Ashton, Esq., of Portland, England, and she received a splendid educational training at a period when girls were not sent to college as frequently as nowadays. Mrs. Bryce was married near Manchester, England, in 1839, and has traveled extensively with her famous husband, and is noted in London for her tact as a hostess and for the clever aid she has given her husband in his political and diplomatic career. Mrs. Bryce is fond of out-of-door life, and especially of mountain climbing, at one time being president of the noted Alpine club.

Training Children.

When people learn the importance of properly training the children for whom they are responsible, there will be a new era on earth. The generation that devotes itself successfully to this task can afford to neglect most of the other problems that keep men too busy to know what their boys are doing, and when the children are trained as they should be, most of the other things will not need to be done. It is also quite possible that the people who successfully sacrifice themselves for their children will not lose anything themselves.

BOAT SINKS IN NEVA; TWENTY-FIVE DROWN

OLD VESSEL STRIKES AN ICE FLOE AND FOUNDERS.

CREW OF INCOMPETENTS

Victims Are Swept Under Ice and Bodies Are Not Recovered—Owner of the Steamer Threatened.

St. Petersburg, April 22.—Twenty-five persons are believed to have been drowned by the foundering of the river steamer Archangelisk while she was crossing the Neva near the suburb of Irinowka late Saturday night.

The accident occurred during a snowstorm when the steamer was two-thirds of the way across the river and was caused by her striking an ice floe, numbers of which still remain in the river despite the lateness of the season.

Many Swept Under Ice.—Owing to the thickness of the weather the accident was not seen from the shore, but the shouts for help of those in distress attracted the crews of two steamers, which hastily went to the scene, only, however, to find that the Archangelisk had foundered. A number of her passengers, mostly workmen, were rescued, but owing to the swiftness of the current, many others were swept under the ice floes. There are no means for establishing definitely the number of victims. The passage across the river was short, and no count was made of the passengers; but according to the police of Okhta, a suburb for which the steamer was bound, 31 persons are missing—all workmen or small merchants of the humbler classes.

Boat Had Been Condemned.—The Archangelisk was an old iron steamer open forward and roofed over astern in the form of a cabin. She was condemned as unseaworthy last fall, but the owner was able to have the ban removed and the vessel placed in service. The crew was made up of three inexperienced men, the captain and pilot having formerly been a baker. All three of the men were saved.

The steamer had scarcely any ballast and when she ran sidewise on a big floe she careened and immediately sank beneath the icy water. One man scrambled on to an ice floe and was carried down stream for a mile. The wreck was located Sunday afternoon lying on the bottom of the river scarcely a hundred feet from the shore, whither it had been swept by the swift current. It was impossible for divers to descend owing to floating ice.

The banks of the river were crowded all day with friends and relatives of missing persons looking for bodies, but none was recovered. It is probable that the dead have been carried down stream for miles.

Feeling runs high against the boat's owner and threats have been made to lynch him.

TWO KILLED IN COLLISION.

Passenger Train Runs Into Freight at Woodlawn Junction, Ala.

Birmingham, Ala., April 22.—Two dead and 12 injured is the result of a collision on the Southern railway at Woodlawn Junction early Sunday. A south-bound freight train entering the yard limits found itself without power on the main line. A passenger train some hours later ran into the rear of this train, though it is claimed a flagman was sent back to protect the freight. A wrecking train leaving the city yards to clear another wreck ran into the Woodlawn Junction wreck.

Lord Halliburton Is Dead.

London, April 22.—Lord Arthur Laurence Halliburton, for a number of years under secretary of state for war, is dead. He was born in Windsor, N. S., September 26, 1832.

Had Ambitions.

Secretary Shaw, searching for the hidden things in the lives of his hundreds of clerks, had blanks sent around the treasury asking each clerk to give his vital statistics. One line requested an answer to the question: "Are you suffering from any disease?"

When the blanks came to it was found that one man said he had tuberculosis. Secretary Shaw sent for him. He came in a big, broad-shouldered, negro messenger, who looked healthy enough to live 50 years.

"Why," said the secretary, "you haven't got tuberculosis!"

"Ain't I?" asked the negro.

"No you haven't. You are perfectly healthy. Why did you write on this blank that you have tuberculosis?"

"Well," said the messenger, "I dunno; 'coppin' if there's anythin' fashionable goin' round I want it."

"Unfastening" Grass.

Little four-year-old Artone was looking at his picture book. Upon turning to one picture he asked: "What is that, mamma?" He was told that it was a sickle. "O, yes," he replied. "I saw Mr. Roberts have one of those the other day when he unfastened the grass."

LAND PATENTS OF INTEREST.

Signatures of Two of the Early Presidents on Them.

W. K. McCall of the Franklin County State bank of Ottawa, who is somewhat of a gatherer of relics, has three land patents which are pretty interesting considering that the signatures of two of the early presidents of the United States are contained in two of them, says the Kansas City Journal. Two of the instruments are patents of land in the northwest territory. One of them is to land in Belmont county, Ohio, and the other to land in Jefferson county. Jonathan Pickering received a tract of land in the first named county. The patent was signed on June 23, 1826, by President Adams. The signature reads simply "J. Q. Adams." The other patent was made to William Johnson, and was signed by James Madison, president of the United States, on July 30, 1812. The third instrument gives a tract of land in La Salle county, Illinois, to James Caldwell. The patent was signed by J. K. Stephens, secretary to President Polk, for the president, on December 1, 1840. The instruments are made of sheepskin. They were gathered by the father of Mr. McCall.

Why She Dined with Him.
"No, you are right," assented the impecunious girl. "I had met him only half a dozen times when I went to dinner with him. I sometimes do that. Why? Oh, because it's so lonely to dine opposite strange faces. I had almost rather go hungry than sit all by myself at some little cafe table, or, say, opposite some strange and unbecomingly face. Then, besides," she added plaintively, "it is so expensive."

Shaving Women.
An Early Hair Restorer.
A remedy for baldness has recently been found by a learned Egyptologist, inscribed in a papyrus. It is said to have been used by King Chata, the second sovereign of the first dynasty. The recipe is as follows: "A mixture of dogs' paws, dates and asses' hoofs, ground up and cooked in oil. The head is to be rubbed vigorously with the preparation."—Family Doctor.
